Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- (a) They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
- (b) They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
- (c) They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;
- (d) Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
- (e) The provision of a race management team , patrol boat and other officials and volunteers by the event organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
- (f) The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;

15 Insurance

15.1 Insurance. Each entrant shall hold third party Indemnity of not less than £2 million Sterling, valid for the Burnham Rivers.

I confirm that I have adequate current insurance cover for the above boat and in particular hold insurance against third party claims for the sum of at least £2,000,000. I agree to be bound by the Sailing Instructions, the Notice of Race, the Bye-Laws of the Crouch Harbour Authority and rules of the Royal Corinthian Yacht Club.

The entry of the above boat is conditional on the acceptance of the following by the owner/competitor racing or using the boat.

A boat is entirely responsible for her own safety, whether afloat or ashore, and nothing, whether in the Notice of Race or Sailing Instructions or anywhere else, reduces this responsibility. It is for the boat to decide whether she is fit to sail in conditions in which she finds herself. By launching or going to sea, the boat confirms that she is fit for those conditions and her crew is competent to sail and compete in them. Competitor's attention is drawn to RRS Fundamental Rule 4 (decision to race).

The boat shall comply with all class rules including buoyancy and safety provisions.

Nothing done by the organising authority and all parties involved with the organisation of the event can reduce the responsibility of the boat, nor will it make the organisers responsible for any loss damage, death or personal injury, however it may have occurred either prior to, during or after this championships.

The provision of safety, guard or patrol boats does not relieve or exonerate the boat of her responsibilities.

I understand that if the boat is in the charge of any person other than the undersigned, it is the responsibility of the undersigned to bring the attention of the person in charge of the boat to the provisions of this entry form.

I have read the above conditions and accept the responsibilities contained therein and agree to be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing and any other rules that govern this event.

I agree to pay my Entry Fee of £20.00 at the same time as this form is submitted.
